⁷ Cognitive regulation of food craving modulates electro-cortical processing of food-cues

Thursday, October 11th, 2012

Time	Duration	Event	Guest	Facilitators
8:00 am	60 min	Breakfast	--	--
9:30 am	90 min	Philosophy and Neuroscience		Tim Gollasch ⁸ Thomas Bulka ⁹ Karl-Heinz Lembeck
11:00 pm		Coffee	?	--

⁸ Inside, Outside: Constructivism in Neurosciences

⁹ Emotion, Mood, Perception: Structural Analogies and their Expression in Language

Member	Title of Poster
Anna Kastner	Attention allocation to social cues in threatening contexts
Christoph Renninger	Serotonin receptor expression of identified neurons in the lateral and basolateral amygdala
Julia Kanis	Mini-KiSS group treatment – Preliminary results Sleep training reduces sleep disorders in toddlers and symptoms of depression in parents
Julia Volkert	Error-Related Negativity in Bipolar Disorder
Juliane Kopf	Heterosis Effects of NOS1 ^{ex1f} -VNTR in a set shifting task
Laura Müller	Frontal activation evoked by the TRAIL making test in young and elderly adults
Lingdan Wu	The contingent negative variation predicts the effect of appraisal frames on the late positive potential
Margherita Lee	5-HTT genotype influences spatial learning and the expression of different markers of neuroplasticity
Maria Nandini Colaco	Impaired spatial learning in mononeuropathic B7H1 knockout mice
Michael Zürn	What's your deal? - Incompatibility of monetary and non-monetary balances in trade-offs
Ruben Real	Comparing incomparable survey responses: Implications for quality of life research
Sabine Volk	Wait a moment! - delay moderates construal level effects on moral judgments
Sandy Popp	Lifelong neuronal serotonin deficiency results in hyperactivity and increased metabolism
Sarah Sich	The impact of T-cadherin on serotonergic 1C11 cells in vitro
Sina Kollert	Phospholipids modulate nociception
Sören Merker	Duplication of SLC2A3 and its potential role for attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder (ADHD)
Thorsten Erle	On the malleability of implicit prejudices
Tobias Kaufmann
