

Time	Preparation online	Week I virtually in Würzburg		Week II virtually in Würzburg	Follow-up online
Topic	Online preparatory phase	International strategies in adult education	Theories in practice for international adult education: Paulo Freire	Comparing lifelong learning	Possibility for publication
Activities	Online tutorial <hr/> Preparatory readings <hr/> Transnational essay <hr/> Employability in adult education <hr/>	Classes on educational policies, adult education in Germany, analysis of models <hr/> Joint field presentations and discussions with stakeholders <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • field presentations of German providers of adult and continuing education • discussions with international stakeholders <hr/> Reflection and role play: theory and practice observations	Readings and theoretical discussion on Paulo Freire <hr/> Reflection: theory and field visit observations	Introduction to comparative adult education <hr/> Comparative group work on nine different topics <hr/> Open space presentations	Joint comparative research papers together with comparative group moderators
Selection options by target groups	All master's students All doctoral students	Option 1: „international strategies in adult education“: all masters's students, selection possibility for doctoral students Option 2: „theories in practice for international adult education“: only doctoral students		Choose one out of the nine topics for the comparative groups to work on in week II	Optional for doctoral students