

How to work on:

Employability and transition to the labour market for adult educators

Choose an “Instruction for reflecting on your employability profile”

1 / 2 HOUR

The instructions for reflecting on your employability profile give you a guideline on what to do to improve your transition to work and to get a job. You may still be undecided or you may already know which career to pursue.

Read the materials on the topic

8 HOURS

To work on your employability profile, you can start with the materials we selected for you. Everything is online and open access! Also, have a look at the information tool below for further materials.

Do the exercises and team up online

8 HOURS

Sign up for the digital learning platform Open Wue Campus to test your new knowledge in an exercise or team up with other students or researchers in a forum there.

Gather data and start comparing

8 HOURS

Gather data according to your instruction for creating the employability profile at home.