

About this workshop

>> The Intensive Workshop will take place from 11. to 12. February 2016 as Multiplier Event at the Julius-Maximilians University Würzburg. It aims presenting and discussing first results, products and outcomes of COMPALL. The Workshop is enriched by two keynotes, a poster session, a world cafe, room for discussions as well as a look into the outcomes of students comparative group works. It targets the discussion of the following questions with researcher and practitioners in adult and lifelong learning:

>> What needs for international and comparative skills does practice in adult education and lifelong learning have?

>> Which didactical requirements does academics contexts need for the development of internationalisation and comparative skills in adult education and lifelong learning?
